Introduction to Scientific Work

Homework Assignment 1

Alexander Moriarty

Bonn-Rhine-Sieg University of Applied Sciences

CiteSeer^X
The Academic Search Engine

- CiteSeer, later replaced by CiteSeer$^X\beta$ is a search engine for academic papers.
- Open*: OpenSource (seersuite), OpenData, OpenDependencies
- Sponsored by NSF, run by College of IST at Penn State
- Usage: GOTO http://citeseerx.ist.psu.edu/ THEN search

OPAC
On-line Public Access Catalogue

- OPAC is the replacement to the traditional library index card catalogues.
- OPAC is an outdated term like <!DOCTYPE HTML>, modern Library Catalogues imply Online Public Access; and much more.
- Modern Library Catalogues search electronic and physical medium
- Modern Library Catalogues can search other library catalogues (WorldCat) and request documents through document delivery services.

Appendix B
Where I found the resources

1. http://dal.worldcat.org/oclc/79691465
2. http://dal.worldcat.org/oclc/256176085
3. * http://www.mendeley.com/research/machine-learning-annotated-bibliography-1995-ai/
4. http://dal.worldcat.org/oclc/355538
5. http://research.cs.wisc.edu/techreports/viewreport.php?report=1648